Biography

Brooke Jackson is an associate in the Alpharetta office, where she focuses her practice on general liability and premises liability matters.

Brooke brings extensive courtroom and trial experience to her practice, having served as a prosecutor in several Georgia jurisdictions. Throughout her career, she has tried more than 30 cases before juries and handled a wide range of criminal matters, developing strong skills in litigation strategy, courtroom advocacy, and case preparation.

Prior to beginning her career as a prosecutor, Brooke was a Staff Attorney for the Northern Judicial Circuit. Brooke then served as an Assistant District Attorney in Hall County, where she prosecuted felony cases and was a member of the Special Victims Unit. She also served as the lead prosecutor for the circuit's accountability courts, including drug court and veterans treatment court. Previously, she was Deputy Chief Assistant Solicitor-General for Hall County and served as an Assistant District Attorney in Athens-Clarke County.

Brooke earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Georgia
