Biography

Chris Stevens is Of Counsel in our Little Rock office, practicing in appellate, business litigation, correctional health care, general liability, governmental liability, health care litigation, medical malpractice, premises liability, and products liability law.

Prior to joining HBS, Chris worked as a partner in a mid-size defense firm where, for over a decade, he handled a variety of general liability matters, with a focus on government liability, business and contract disputes, premises liability, and appeals. He has successfully defended multiple cases on summary judgment, at trial, and on appeal.

Chris earned his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from the University of Arkansas and received his Bachelor of Arts, magna cum laude, from Hendrix College. Outside of his professional career, he actively serves on the Board of Directors for the Pulaski County Bar Association and volunteers as a coach in several youth sports programs in Little Rock.
