Biography

Taylor E. Young is an associate in our West Palm Beach office, where she primarily focuses her practice on insurance coverage and premises liability matters.

Prior to joining HBS, Taylor worked as an associate for a civil litigation firm where she managed her own case load out of the firm’s Orlando, FL office. She worked on a variety of matters ranging from premises liability to business litigation and conducted over fifty in-person depositions throughout the United States. Subsequently, Taylor moved to South Florida after securing a job with a prominent insurance defense firm. While there, she gained valuable experience working on insurance defense matters including premises liability, construction, and legal malpractice.

Taylor received her Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of South Florida. After graduation, she attended Barry University, where she obtained her Juris Doctor. While studying at Barry, she was a member of Phi Alpha Delta and received the 2020 New Lawyer Training Program Scholarship, the Barry University School of Law Merit Scholarship, and the Dean's Award Grant. For two years, Taylor also devoted her time to volunteering as a Guardian
