Biography

Alexandra Beato is an Associate in our Atlanta office, where she supports our aging services, complex litigation, and appellate practice groups.

She assists with representing clients in long-term care, personal injury, and complex litigation suits in both trial and appellate level courts. Prior to joining Hall Booth Smith, Alex worked as an honors intern for the Federal Bureau of Investigation in its Atlanta and Washington, D.C., headquarters and as a legislation intern for the Prosecuting Attorneys' Council of Georgia.

Alex earned her Juris Doctor, summa cum laude, from Georgia State University College of Law, where she served as the Symposium Editor for the Georgia State Law Review and published an article regarding the repeal of Georgia's citizen arrest law. She also served as the President for the Public Interest Law Association and was a graduate assistant for the former Associate Dean for Students. In addition, Alex received CALI Awards in Constitutional Law II and International Criminal Law.

Alex also holds a Bachelor of Arts, magna cum laude, in Political Science with minors in both Economics and Psychology from Berry
