Biography

Andrew Murdison is a Partner in our Augusta office, focusing on business litigation, general liability, and medical malpractice matters.

Prior to joining HBS, Andrew had his own firm where his practice consisted of civil litigation, business advising and corporate work, and family law. During this time, he also served as a special assistant attorney general representing the Departments of Family and Children Services in Richmond, Burke, and Columbia Counties as well as a part-time assistant solicitor general, prosecuting misdemeanor offenses in the State Court of Richmond County.
