Biography

Ben Sowell is an associate attorney in the Atlanta office of Hall Booth Smith, where he focuses his practice on aging services, general liability, insurance coverage, medical malpractice, premises liability, and professional malpractice and ethics.

Ben represents clients in a variety of liability defense and general civil litigation matters. Prior to joining HBS, he practiced at another Georgia law firm, where he handled commercial and general civil litigation matters. His experience includes legal research, drafting pleadings and motions, and assisting with discovery and other aspects of litigation.

During law school, Ben served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Timothy C. Batten, Sr. of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. In this role, he conducted legal research, drafted orders and memoranda, and observed court proceedings, gaining valuable insight into the federal judicial process.

In addition to his civilian practice, Ben serves as a First Lieutenant in the U.S. Army Reserve Judge Advocate General's Corps, where he provides legal assistance and performs administrative law
