Biography

William "Bill" T. Goran is Of Counsel in our Miami, Florida, office. He has over 35 years of workers' compensation experience defending insurance carriers and employers throughout the construction and hospitality industry. In addition, he represents employers and business owners in Fair Labor and Standards Act claims, labor and employment claims, and Americans with Disability Act claims.

Bill is an established litigation attorney with extensive background in litigating high volume workers' compensation matters throughout Southern Florida. His defense experience includes defending Fortune 500 employers and carriers with varying complex needs.

AV Preeminent® Peer Review Rated™ by his peers on Martindale-Hubbell, Bill has handled thousands of cases, attended hundreds of Final Merits Hearings, and has been involved in well over 20 reported appellate decisions. He is well respected in his field and is often invited to speak at events and conferences for employers and insurance companies regarding various workers' compensation and employment law topics.

Compensability of Slip and Fall Accidents - Where Are We Since The Florida First District Court of Appeals April 5, 2019 Decision in Valcourt - Williams (The Dog Case)

May 26, 2021

Written by: William T. Goran, Esq. For over 75 years now worker's compensation practitioners have grappled with issues concerning compensability of slip and fall accidents that occurred at work and the evidence is unclear as to why the slip and fall occurred, raising questions regarding whether the accident and injury "arises out of" the employment
