Biography

Billy is a partner in our Atlanta, Georgia office. He defends insureds and insurers in a variety of general liability and motor vehicle claims, including counseling insurers on handling bad faith issues before and after they arise. He also represents assisted living facilities and skilled nursing facilities in medical malpractice and general liability claims.

While earning his Juris Doctor from Georgia State University, Billy was an associate student writing editor for the Georgia State University Law Review and a graduate research assistant for Professor Andrea Curcio. Billy also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from the University of Georgia.

When he’s not practicing law, Billy enjoys coaching swimming and playing golf.
