Biography

Brittany Love is an associate in our Jacksonville office who focuses her practice on insurance coverage matters.

Prior to joining HBS, Brittany served as part of the in-house litigation team for Farmers Insurance. While there, she wrote and successfully argued a dispositive motion on a reimbursement rounding issue. Before her work with Farmers Insurance, she was an assistant public defender with the Office of the Public Defender for the Fourth Circuit, where she managed over 10 jury trials and argued numerous motions to suppress.

Brittany earned her Juris Doctor from Washington and Lee University and her Bachelor of Arts, summa cum laude, from the University of Florida.
