HALL BOOTH SMITH, P.C.

calebmartin@hallboothsmith.com

Attorney at Law

912.580.3005

BIOGRAPHY | CREDENTIALS | IN THE PRESS

Biography

Caleb Martin practices in the areas of medical malpractice and correctional health care, as an associate in the firm's Brunswick office.

Before joining Hall Booth Smith, Caleb gained valuable experience in both the legal and public sectors. He previously served as a Congressional Intern for the United States House of Representatives, where he corresponded with constituents, assisted with legislative research, and supported committee hearings on a range of national policy issues. Caleb also worked as a law intern with a Savannah-based firm, where he assisted partners in preparing cases involving business, health care, personal injury, real estate, and municipal law.

Earlier in his career, Caleb worked in education as a high school economics teacher and coach, mentoring student-athletes and fostering financial literacy and critical thinking skills. He also served as an information technology analyst at Wayne Memorial Hospital, where he supported hospital network operations and cybersecurity.

Caleb earned his Juris Doctor from Mercer University School of Law

Services

Correctional Health Care

Medical Malpractice

© 2023 Hall Booth Smith, P.C. | All Rights Reserved

and received his Bachelor of Arts in government from Dartmouth College, where he was a football player.

Credentials

Admitted

State Courts:

- Georgia
    - Superior Court

Education

- J.D., Mercer Law School
- B.A., Dartmouth College

In the Press

Brunswick Office of Hall Booth Smith Welcomes Two Associates

November 18, 2025

Two new associates, John R. “Ronnie” Dickey and Caleb Martin, have joined the Brunswick office of Hall Booth Smith, P.C. (HBS). They will focus their practices on health care, medical malpractice, and related litigation matters.

© 2023 Hall Booth Smith, P.C. | All Rights Reserved

Read Full Article
Load More Posts

© 2023 Hall Booth Smith, P.C. | All Rights Reserved