Biography

Partner Christina Wolfram focuses her practice on medical malpractice, dental defense, and other personal injury matters. She also serves as Hiring Partner for the West, where she oversees associate attorney hiring endeavors.

Christina works to develop strong professional relationships with her clients, as she understands the stress clients endure during litigation, and she strives to keep her clients informed of new developments while making them as active of a participant in their cases as they would like to be.

Christina began her career as an Assistant District Attorney in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, as a felony prosecutor. She handled many types of serious crimes but her focus was on crimes against children including physical abuse, sexual abuse, and child homicide.

Christina earned a Juris Doctor from the University of Oklahoma. She also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Washington University in St. Louis. During her undergraduate studies, she was a member of the Alpha Phi Sorority and a member of the WashU dance team.
