Biography

Drew Graham started his practice with Hall Booth Smith in 1992, developing expertise in traditional medical and professional negligence. In 1996, Drew created the firm's Aging Services practice in response to industry demand for specialist attorneys in the evolving area of long term care litigation.

As chair of the group, Drew is committed to making it the go-to resource for health care providers facing the challenges of a complex and highly regulated specialty. The group has grown to include over 20 attorneys, each with an in-depth appreciation of the industry.

Drew is frequently called to assist with the management of batch claims, complex discovery, and trial. He works with counsel across the country on developing strategies to address damages in all types of medical cases. Drew is actively involved in numerous professional organizations and is a frequent speaker at industry and legal meetings. He is peer rated AV Preeminent® Peer Review Rated™ by Martindale-Hubbell. He lives in New York with his wife and daughters.
