Biography

Elizabeth Marie Hunt is an associate in the HBS Memphis office, where she will focus her practice on medical malpractice, health care and premises liability matters.

Elizabeth previously served as a summer associate at HBS and clerked for various local law firms. She also gained experience as a student attorney for the University of Memphis Medical Legal Partnership Clinic, where she represented low-income pediatric patients and their families at Le Bonheur Children's Hospital. Additionally, Elizabeth worked as a judicial extern for Judge Barnett at the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Tennessee.

She earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Memphis, where she held the position of associate justice for the first-year competition with the Memphis Law Moot Court Board and was on staff for The University of Memphis Law Review. Elizabeth earned a Bachelor of Arts degree with double majors in finance and marketing from Loras College, where she also played on the college's soccer and basketball teams.
