Biography

Emily K. Lehman is an Associate in our Tampa office who specializes in aging services matters.

Formerly a law clerk in the government relations department at HBS, Emily also worked as an associate for a trial defense firm in St. Petersburg, Florida, and represented both nursing homes and assisted living facilities. During her time at law school, she interned for the Honorable Mark. R. Wolfe with the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Court of Florida. She also worked on political campaigns, including Senator Keith Perry's re-election campaign for the Florida Senate, which was followed by a legislative internship in his district office.

Emily earned her Juris Doctor from Stetson University and her Bachelor of Science in Public Relations from the University of Florida.
