Biography

Frank G. Lumpkin, IV is an associate in our Columbus and Atlanta, Georgia, offices. He focuses his practice on complex trial and appellate civil practice as well as on a range of government relations matters.

Before joining HBS, Frank worked on the advice team at MagMutual Insurance Company. He also has experience advocating for public policy through nonprofit work and has negotiated and authored multiple legislative documents, one of which became federal law (Pub Law 177-58) in a deal between Senators Raphael Warnock and Ted Cruz. Frank interned with the Honorable Clay D. Land at the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Georgia and the U.S. Congress.

Frank earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Georgia where he served two consecutive terms as class president. While there, he received the Hart Family Scholarship, Richard B. Russell Student Leadership Scholarship, and the Georgia Municipal Association Municipal Corporations Award & Scholarship. Additionally, he holds a Finance degree with certificates in both
