Biography

Frank G. Lumpkin IV is an associate in our Columbus and Atlanta, Georgia, offices licensed in both Georgia and Alabama. With deep roots in West Central Georgia, Frank is committed to advancing regional economic development by equipping businesses and public entities with the legal tools necessary to grow and thrive. Beyond economic development law, Frank has experience in complex trial and appellate litigation, fiduciary disputes, and government liability, as well as on a range of government relations matters. Outside of his law practice, he develops and invests in real estate.

Before joining HBS, Frank worked on the advice team at MagMutual Insurance Company. He also has experience advocating for public policy through nonprofit work and has negotiated and authored multiple legislative documents, one of which became federal law (Pub Law 177-58) in a deal between Senators Raphael Warnock and Ted Cruz. Frank interned with the Honorable Clay D. Land at the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Georgia and the U.S. Congress.
