Biography

Jaime Greenwood is an associate in our Denver office, focusing on general liability, insurance coverage, construction, premises liability, medical malpractice, and automobile and trucking accident litigation.

Prior to joining HBS, Jaime worked as an associate handling cases involving automobile accidents, premises liability, personal injury, and insurance coverage, in addition to leading the firm's minor settlement practice area. Jaime also gained experience in tax, cannabis, and corporate law through her work as a law clerk at several firms throughout law school.

Jaime earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Denver, where she served as a first-year Senator and eventually, Vice President, of the Student Bar Association. In addition, she served as the Community Outreach and Social Committee chairs of the Student Bar Association, as well as Vice President of the Student International Cannabis Bar Association. She earned her Bachelor of Science, summa cum laude, in Sociology with Northeastern University. Jaime is originally from Boston, Massachusetts but now lives in Denver, Colorado with her fiancé and two Maine Coon cats,
