Biography

Jeremy J. Balu is a Partner in our Denver office, and he focuses his practice on construction, premises liability, general liability, and trucking accident litigation.

For nearly a decade, he has represented construction companies, property owners, property managers, and homeowners associations of all sizes on a wide range of legal matters such as personal injury claims, premises liability, and construction defect litigation defense. He also counsels clients on day-to-day business matters such as lien claims and other disputes.

More +

Jeremy has defended commercial truck drivers and motor carriers in motor vehicle and other transportation accidents, including personal injury and negligence claims.

Earlier in his career, Jeremy provided legal counsel to clients through the Getches-Green Natural Resources & Environmental Law Clinic, and he was an environmental regulations researcher at the National Renewable Energy Laboratory. He also worked for a national home builder and brings that first-hand knowledge and experience to bear when representing clients in construction and
