Biography

JT Mlinarcik is Of Counsel in our Raleigh office, where he focuses his practice on medical malpractice, aging services, professional malpractice and ethics, and general liability matters. He represents businesses and individuals in various health care related areas including those who have disciplinary or licensing issues and those under investigation by governmental agencies. He has experience in working with clients of all sizes, from start-ups to multi-million dollar enterprises.

Prior to joining HBS, JT worked as general counsel, business consultant, and trainer for a Global Systems Solution partner. There, he managed legal operations for multiple business units in complex employee engagements, human resources, contract negotiation, entity formation, and risk management. Prior to earning a law degree, JT held the Series 7 and 63 certifications from the National Association of Securities Dealers and the New York Stock Exchange and built and managed a multi-million dollar financial planning firm and subsequently served as a project manager with a business consulting firm.

JT earned his Juris Doctor from Regent University, where he was
