Biography

Katherine R. Heath is an Associate based in our office in Asheville, North Carolina, and represents clients in all parts of North Carolina and South Carolina. She focuses her practice on regulatory, administrative, and litigation matters in health care. Specifically, she works with providers across the Carolinas to address legal issues involving Medicaid Long Term Care eligibility, including handling special proceedings and administrative hearings and appeals. She also counsels clients on financial best practices and state and federal Medicaid policies.

Her experience includes handling a variety of cases involving general and governmental liability, and she has secured successful results for skilled nursing facilities, assisted living facilities, businesses, employers, law enforcement officers and entities, health care professionals, and other licensed professionals.

More +

Katherine is a proud Demon Deacon, earning her Juris Doctor from Wake Forest University School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, magna cum laude, from Wake Forest University.

Prior to joining Hall Booth Smith, Katherine was a legal intern at
