Biography

Kirsti Ericksen is an associate in the firm’s Missoula office, where she focuses her practice on health care and medical malpractice matters.

Kirsti brings a strong foundation in legal research, litigation support, and case preparation, having worked with Hall Booth Smith for three consecutive summers before joining the firm as an Associate. During her time as a Summer Law Clerk and Summer Associate, she gained valuable experience assisting attorneys with complex litigation matters, including medical malpractice claims, damages issues, discovery disputes, and trial preparation. Her responsibilities included conducting legal research, preparing deposition outlines, researching expert witnesses, and drafting an opening statement for trial. She also gained firsthand exposure to litigation proceedings by observing depositions, hearings, mediations, and medical malpractice panel hearings.

Kirsti also served as a Licensed Legal Intern with Gonzaga University School of Law's Clinical Legal Program, where she represented clients in Tribal Court under the supervision of a licensed attorney. In this role, she developed practical courtroom and client advocacy skills while drafting legal documents, conducting research, and communicating with clients throughout their cases.

Before law school, Kirsti gained experience through an internship with a Montana district court, where she assisted with probate matters, reviewed motions and plea agreements, and prepared court documents. Her additional legal experience includes working with a California law firm, where she supported litigation preparation through document review and organization of trial materials.

Kirsti earned her Juris Doctor from Gonzaga University School of Law. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, magna cum laude, from Saint Mary's College of California, where she participated in the Pre-Law Club, Gael Women in Business, and competitive club tennis.
