Biography

Krysta Grymes is an Associate in our office in Brunswick, Georgia, and she focuses her practice on aging services and medical malpractice defense.

Earlier in her career, Krysta was a judicial staff attorney for the Oconee Judicial Circuit, where she drafted orders and judgments for civil and criminal superior court matters and helped manage cases. She was a legal intern in the Office of the General Counsel at Atrium Health Navicent and held several internships and student worker positions.

Krysta earned a Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from the Walter F. George School of Law at Mercer University, where she worked for the Mercer Law Review and won the Faculty Award for Outstanding Achievement in Legal Writing. There she earned CALI Awards for Jurisdiction & Judgments, Law of Lawyering, Law of Wills, Constitutional Law, and Georgia Civil Practice and Procedure. She also completed a Bachelor of Science in Psychology at the University of Florida.
