Biography

Melina Lettieri is an associate in the firm's Birmingham office, where she focuses her practice on general liability and medical malpractice matters.

Prior to joining the firm as an associate, Melina spent two summers as a law clerk with Hall Booth Smith, where she gained valuable experience conducting legal research, drafting legal memoranda, and attending arbitrations, depositions, and mediations. She also gained additional legal experience at another local law firm, further developing her research and legal writing skills.

Melina earned her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Samford University's Cumberland School of Law. During law school, she served as a student materials editor for the law review, participated on the national trial team, and served as director of The Williams Trial Competition. She was also an academic success advisor and a member of the career development advisory board.

She received her Bachelor of Arts in Law and Justice, summa cum laude, from Auburn University, with a minor in Sociology. While at Auburn, she served as president and team captain of the mock
