Biography

Michael Strickland is an associate in the firm's Atlanta office, where he focuses his practice on business litigation, dental, medical malpractice, general liability, premises liability, products liability, and transportation matters.

Before joining HBS, Michael gained legal experience as a law clerk at a local firm, where he researched and analyzed complex issues for large financial institutions, including lender liability, securities fraud, and breach of contract claims. He also drafted and revised stock purchase agreements and other transactional documents, contributing to successful closings.

Earlier, as a legal intern, he supported litigation teams on civil rights and personal injury matters by preparing demand letters, discovery requests, and deposition summaries. Michael also previously worked in operations management at Amazon, where he led a team of more than 200 associates and implemented innovative process improvements that significantly enhanced productivity and safety outcomes.

Michael earned his Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Georgia State University College of Law, where he served on the Moot Court
