Experience

Bankruptcy Creditors' Rights

Nick has experience representing and advising corporate creditors in consumer and corporate bankruptcy cases filed under Chapters 7, 11, and 13 of the Bankruptcy Code. Nick is well-versed in the challenge faced by creditors hailed into bankruptcy court and the process necessary to protect creditors' interests.

Business Litigation

Nick assists both individuals and business in litigation involving contractual claims and representing contractor and subcontractors in construction matters.

Governmental Liability

Nick represents local municipalities and government entities in employment matters and ad valorem tax matters.

Education

Nick has handled legal matters experienced by the Muscogee County School District and other local school districts. His representation of school districts has included defending school districts in EEOC matters and litigation arising under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act as well as claims arising under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

He has also assisted in the training of school district employees on school district policies and federal law pertaining to racial harassment, sexual harassment, and non-discriminatory employment and education practices.
