Biography

Paul Atwood is an associate in the Atlanta office, where he focuses his practice on general liability and premises liability matters.

Prior to joining HBS, Paul gained experience as a law clerk at a Macon-based law firm, where he assisted with insurance defense matters. He gained experience there reviewing discovery, preparing medical chronologies, and drafting reports for insurance adjusters. He also served as a judicial intern with the Bibb County State Court, where he conducted legal research, drafted memoranda and judicial orders, and observed court proceedings.

Paul earned his Juris Doctor from Mercer University School of Law, where he received a Legal Writing Certificate and competed nationally as a member of the Negotiations Team. He was also a member of the legal international honor society, Phi Delta Phi, and was named to the Dean's List. He graduated cum laude from Berry College with a Bachelor of Science in Business Management and a Bachelor of Arts in Religion and Philosophy, with a minor in Psychology.
