Biography

Sarai Medrano is an associate in our Little Rock office focusing on immigration and labor and employment matters.

Previously a Summer Associate with HBS, Sarai was also a law clerk for the Office of Arkansas Attorney General's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, where she assisted in investigating violations of state and federal law involving Medicaid providers and the abuse or neglect of nursing home residents. Prior to that, she served as a law clerk for a local firm, where she managed handling a wide range of criminal and civil matters. In this role, she was actively involved in Cara Connor's campaign in the election for Circuit Judge for District 6, Division 12.

Sarai earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, where she was a member of the Moot Court Board and competed in the NYC Bar National Moot Court regional competition. During her time in law school, she also was a student attorney for the Consumer Protection Clinic. There she assisted low-income individuals with resolving issues such as foreclosure, debt collection, eviction, fraud, and unfair or deceptive trade practices. Sarai earned her Bachelor of Business Administration,
