Shannon Sanders is a paralegal in our office in Birmingham, Alabama, and she works on the full spectrum of medical malpractice defense matters.

In addition to assisting senior partners with trial preparation, she also organizes and indexes voluminous medical records, drafts and revises motions and pleadings, reviews deposition transcripts, communicates with judges and clerks about scheduling and maintains client files.

She has more than 25 years of experience as a paralegal and legal assistant, and joined Hall Booth Smith in 2017.

Shannon earned a Bachelor of Science degree in public administration from Samford University in Birmingham in 1992.
