Biography

Stephanos C. Yiannas is an Associate in our Tampa office, where he focuses his practice on general liability, insurance coverage, medical malpractice, premises liability, and products liability matters.

Prior to joining HBS, Stephanos worked as an Associate in Brentwood, Tennessee, where he represented large corporations, individuals, and contractors in a variety of premises liability, auto negligence, construction defect, and labor and employment law cases. He also worked as an Associate in West Palm Beach, Florida, where he litigated on behalf of a multitude of insurers and self-insured corporations and secured summary judgment in favor of premises owners in high value bodily injury cases.

Stephanos earned his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from Barry University, where he was Senior Editor of the Barry Law Review. He was also a member of the Moot Court Honors Board. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of Miami.
