Biography

Travis R. Linn is an associate in our Rogers office, where he practices in business transactions, labor and employment, medical malpractice, real estate, and wills, trusts, and estate planning.

During his clerkship at HBS and various firms in Arkansas, Travis gained valuable firsthand experience in labor and employment, business development, and real estate transactional matters.

During his time in law school, he worked as a research assistant for Professor Daniel Rice at the University of Arkansas and externed with the University's General Counsel's Office.

Travis earned his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from the University of Arkansas, where he held the position of managing editor of the Arkansas Law Review. He also took on leadership roles as President of the Business Law Society and Vice President of the Law Student Wellness Society. Prior to law school, Travis graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from Pittsburg State University.
