Biography

Tyler Knauss is an Associate in our Atlanta office, and he defends clients in complex medical malpractice and general liability litigation. He also counsels clients on corporate and partnership matters, business transactions, and business litigation.

Tyler was previously a Law Clerk and a Legal Intern at Hall Booth Smith, spending previous summers during law school interning at other law firms. Before pursuing a legal career, Tyler was a member of an Angel Investment Group in the Southeast and owns equity interests in several startup companies. He also owns a stake in a meat snack business and draws on his business ownership and financial knowledge in serving clients.

Tyler earned a Juris Doctor from the Charleston School of Law and a Bachelor of Science from Furman University.
